14TH MARCH – 24TH MARCH 2023
PROVISIONAL TOUR ITINERARY

Your Rugby Tour Destination - Ireland

Belfast

Belfast - What to Know:

Belfast is Northern Ireland's capital. It was the birthplace of the RMS Titanic, which famously struck an iceberg and sunk in 1912.

This legacy is recalled in the renovated dockyards' Titanic Quarter, which includes the Titanic Belfast, an aluminium-clad museum reminiscent of a ship's hull, as well as shipbuilder Harland & Wolff's Drawing Offices and the Titanic Slipways.

Belfast is now a vibrant & cosmopolitan city offering shops, pubs, nightlife and is easy reach to all of the major tourist sites.

Rugby is also on the agenda in the city.

Ulster Rugby are located in the city center at Ravenhill Stadium.

If your itinerary timing allows you there's the possibility of attending a PRO14 game with Ulster Rugby.

Traveling to hosting clubs is no problem, there are many located around the city and there's nothing like an Irish Welcome.

For all you Game of Thrones fans you can't go home without visiting one of the many film locations situated outside the city.

Most if not all the scenes were filmed around the city of Belfast which helped the city grow to what it is now.

This was our first experience with Irish Rugby Tours.

The level of pre-tour engagement was fantastic. All the staff with whom we had contact were very professional but also had a great sense of humour which was appreciated by all of us.

We would definitely use them again. Definitely recommend to other rugby clubs. Many thanks!!

Derry

Derry - What to Know:

Derry, also known as Londonderry, is a city on the River Foyle in Northern Ireland.

It's known for the intact 17th-century Derry's Walls with 7 gates. Within the walls, spired St. Columb's Cathedral displays artefacts from the 1688–9 Siege of Derry.

Near the Peace Bridge, the Tower Museum has city views and historical exhibits. Huge stained-glass windows adorn the neo-Gothic red sandstone Guildhall.

It has everything you want from shops, pubs, nightlife and is easy reach to all of the major tourist sites. Suitable for all ages - Derry has everything to offer.

Derry is either the perfect One Stop Shop or add it in as part of a multi-city rugby tour.

You will go home happy!

Derry has a diverse sporting heritage, with a history in sports ranging from Gaelic games, soccer and rugby to rowing, basketball, motorsport, hockey and other sports.

The name Derry is very much in popular use throughout Ireland for the naming of places, and there are at least six towns bearing that name and at least a further 79 places.

Derry is now very much a multi-cultural city and well worth the visit.

All I can say is that it was without doubt a great weekend and I have nothing but praise for your efforts and in terms of value for money there have been no complaints from parents etc.

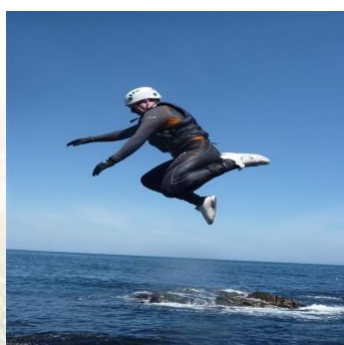

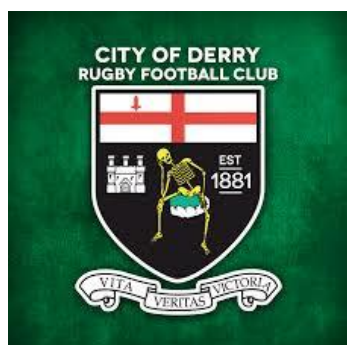

Overall, our experience of dealing with you and your company has been first class and would not hesitate to recommend your business to anyone who makes inquiries.

Donegal

Donegal – What to Know:

Donegal is Ireland's most spectacular County on the Wild Atlantic Way - packed full of culture, heritage, spectacular beaches, mountains and lakes.

Donegal town is at the mouth of the River Eske and was once home to Donegal Castle.

Donegal is located in the North - West Region and is also part of the province of Ulster.

Sometimes Donegal seems more like a country than a county amongst many. Wild landscape, country roads and a coastline that cuts and curves, the word "escape" doesn't even begin to do it justice.

Rugby is popular in the town and is widely played at all age groups.

You would be greatly welcomed and would be sure to have a blast at the post match presentations.

With Donegal's great coastline water sports are all the rage from coasteering to waterboarding, you just won't be able to get enough.

For your evening entertainment there are plenty great little pubs that hold live music sessions and of course you have your weekend nightclubs.

Make sure to add Donegal to your Irish tour.

If we ever returned to Ireland, we would absolutely return with Irish Rugby Tours.

I felt like we got a genuine glimpse of authentic Ireland and it is an experience that we will never forget.

Gordon was exceptional in terms of checking in us and was genuinely concerned to provide us the best tour possible.

It's also a crafts hub, with shops along its winding lanes selling pottery, paintings and jewellery.

Kilkenny City is also where you will find the Smithwicks Brewery. Smithwicks is one of Ireland's main beers sold in all public houses & hotels.

This is a weeklong festival of Comedy. You will find most of the world's top comedians will attend this long running festival.

Kilkenny also have a fine rugby club too just located outside the town.

Our driver and guide were so flexible too. Both went along with everything we wanted to do it was a pleasure working with them.

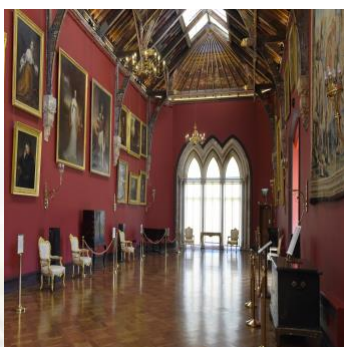

The players and parents loved it!

Wexford

Wexford - What to know:

Wexford is a town in southeast, at the mouth of the River Slaney. It's known for its medieval lanes and the opera festival held in the modern National Opera House.

West Gate Heritage Tower is a restored 13th-century tollgate.

It's next to the old town walls and ruined 12th-century Selskar Abbey.

The Bullring marketplace, once a bull-baiting site, has a statue marking the 1798 Rebellion against British rule. In Wexford you will find the ancestral home of the famous Irish American family the Kennedy's.

In Dunbrody you will find the replica famine ship which took thousands of Irish families across to America.

Rugby features heavily in Wexford as well as having its own rugby club there are other clubs situated around the county with very strong clubs.

Rugby Schools also figure prominently, so you will not go short for a game.

During our Rugby Tour to Ireland – All of the staff were incredible, tour guides drivers etc.

Everyone was friendly, helpful and made sure we had a great time.

Everything was great, I don't know what I would've done differently. It was our first trip to Ireland, I can't imagine it going better. The boys had a great time, the parents had a great time, all in all just a truly memorable trip.
